less and apparently dead on the edge of the hearthstone. The terror which instantly spread among the guests shows the hold which superstition has upon all classes of humanity. Happily, however, an unseemly panic was averted by the necessity which all felt of preserving some sort of composure till the ceremony for which they had assembled had been performed, for simultaneously with this discovery of death in the library there had come from above the sound of the approaching bridal procession, and cries were hushed and beating hearts restrained as Miss Moore's charming face and exquisite figure appeared between the rows of flowering plants with which the staircase was lined. No need for the murmur to go about: 'Spare the bride! Let nothing but cheer surround her till she is Jeffrey's wife!' The look of joy which irradiated her countenance and gave a fairylike aspect to her whole exquisite person would have deterred the most careless and self-centered person there from casting a shadow across her pathway one minute sooner than necessity demanded. The richness of the ancestral veil which covered her features and the natural timidity which prevents a bride from lifting her eyes from the floor she traversed saved her from observing the strange looks by which her presence was hailed. She was consequently enabled to go through the ceremony in happy unconsciousness of the forced restraint which held that surging mass together.

"But the bridesmaids were not so happy. Miss Tuttle especially held herself upright simply by the exercise of her will, and, though resplendent in beauty, suffered so much in her anxiety for the bride that it was a matter of small surprise when she fainted at the conclusion of the ceremony.

"Mr. Jeffrey showed more composure, but the inward excitement under which he was laboring made him trip more than once in his responses, as many there noted whose minds were not fixed too strongly on flight.

"Only Dr. Auchincloss was quite himself, and by means of the solemnity which he invested his words kept the hubbub down, which was already making itself heard on the outskirts of the crowd. But even his influence did not prevail beyond the moment devoted to the benediction. Once the sacred words were said, such a stampede followed that the bride showed much alarm, and it was left for Mr. Jeffrey to explain to her the cause of this astonishing conduct on the part of her guests. She bore the disclosure well, all things considered, and once she was fully assured that the unhappy man whose sudden death had thus interrupted the festivities was an intruder upon the scene and quite unknown, not only to herself but to her newly made husband, she brightened perceptibly, though, like every one around her, she seemed anxious to leave the house, and, indeed, did so as soon as Miss Tuttle's condition warranted it.

"The fact that the bride went through the ceremony without her bridal bouquet is looked upon by many as an unfavorable omen. In her anxiety not to impose any longer upon the patience of her guests, she had descended without it.

"As to the deceased, but little is known of him. Letters found on his person prove his name to be W. Pfeiffer and his residence Denver. His presence in Miss Moore's house at a time so inopportune is unexplained. No such name is on the list of wedding guests, nor was he recognized as one of Miss Moore's friends either by Mr. Jeffrey or by such of her relatives and acquaintances as had the courage to enter the library to see him.

"With the exception of the discolored mark on his temple, showing where his head had come in contact with the hearthstone, his body presents an appearance of natural robustness, which makes his sudden end seem all the more shocking.

"His name has been found registered at the National Hotel."

Turning over the files I next came upon the following dispatch from Denver:

A STRANGE EXCUSE

Admiral Rojestvensky Mistook Fishing Vessels For Torpedo Boats.

THAT IS WHAT HE SAYS

At Vigo the Admiral of Hi-Omened Fleet Gives Explanation of His Extraordinary Conduct.

Admiral Beresford's Fleet Will See That the Russian Does no More Damage.

There is an accentuation of feeling in Great Britain over the delay of the Russian government in proceeding from the commander of the Baltic squadron his version of the attack on the Hull fishing fleet. Admiral Rojestvensky, who is at Vigo, Spain, has, so far as the public is informed, made no official explanation of the events of the night of Oct. 21, but in a press interview he has put forward the statement that two torpedo boats, presumably Japanese craft, appeared among his ships off Dogger bank, failing to comply with a demand to retire or state their nationality, were fired upon. Six of the best ships of the British channel fleet are under orders to sail today, presumably to shadow the further movements of the Russian warships sailing for the Cape of Good Hope, and all the other vessels of the channel fleet are ready to put to sea at a moment's notice. Besides the five Russian ships at Vigo, there are others reported at Villa Garcia and Arosa bay. They have been notified that they will not be permitted to coal in Spanish ports. Five German colliers are at Vigo. Admiral Rojestvensky has informed the Spanish authorities that his ships at Vigo have sustained such damage that they will not be able to leave port within the twenty-four hours allowed warships of a combatant in a neutral port. The tone of the London press is notably more bellicose today than it has been at any period of the existing crisis.

NEAR-SIGHTED RUSSIANS

They Thought Fishing Vessels Were Jap Torpedo Boats.

Gibraltar, Oct. 27.—The battleships Victorious, Illustrious and Majestic (flagship of Vice Admiral Beresford) and the cruisers Lancaster, Theseus and Endymion, are under orders to sail on the morning of Oct. 28. It is reported that the purpose is to shadow the Russian Baltic squadron which is expected to go by way of the Cape of Good Hope. The Russian Baltic squadron's cruisers and torpedo boats are expected to pass through the straits of Gibraltar on the way to Suez. The whole of the Gibraltar torpedo flotilla has been commissioned.

Vigo, Spain, Oct. 27.—The arrival of the Russian battleships Emperor Alexander III, Borodino, Orel and Kniakz Souvaroff and the transport Anadol, which have anchored in this port, has caused considerable excitement.

The commander of the port immediately boarded the Russian flagship and informed Admiral Rojestvensky that the Spanish government could not permit the warships to coal within the port. Admiral Rojestvensky replied that his vessels needed repairs, and that for that reason he had separated from the remainder of his squadron. Five German colliers anchored in port alongside the battleships, whereupon the commander of the port sent an aide de camp to beg Admiral Rojestvensky not to violate Spanish neutrality, and he also ordered the commanding officer of the Spanish cruiser Estramadura to notify the colliers that they must obey the port authorities. Eventually Admiral Rojestvensky promised that he would not coal in Spanish waters. Admiral Rojestvensky, accompanied by the commanders of his battleships, visited the military governor, the French consul, and the commander of the port, receiving the usual honors.

tag the usual honors.

Admiral Rojestvensky has expressed great regret over the North sea incident. The admiral stated that the unfortunate occurrence was purely accidental. The weather on the night in question was rather hazy. About 1 a. m. two torpedo boats, which the Russians supposed were Japanese craft, suddenly appeared between the two divisions of the squadron and seemed to discharge torpedoes. The Russians immediately opened fire. They saw no fishermen, and were not aware that any damage had been done. Evidently, the admiral said, the fishermen had shown no lights. The admiral repeated that he greatly regretted that any injury had been done fishermen, and added that he had no doubt the Russian government would make ample compensation.

Prince Keretelli, an officer of the battleship Emperor Alexander III, has been interviewed and gives the following explanation of the attack by the Baltic squadron upon the British trawlers off Dogger bank: "The transport Anadol, which was steaming ahead of the squadron, was suddenly surrounded by eight torpedo boats and requested assistance, whereupon the battleship division advanced and signalled to the unknown vessels to leave or disclose their nationality. The vessels refused to obey and advanced among the Russian battleships. Suddenly a cannon shot was heard from an unknown vessel. Then the admiral formed in battle line and replied to the fire, afterward continuing his voyage."

Prince Keretelli added that the Russians feared the strange torpedo boats were Japanese, as the admiral was aware that the Japanese had purchased such boats in England.

DARK WAR CLOUD

Tension Over the Dogger Bank Incident Increases.

London, Oct. 27.—There is no sign as yet when Admiral Rojestvensky's report will be made public; but if unofficial reports should turn out to reflect the admiral's official report, it is evident the Russian officers made an extraordinary blunder in mistaking trawlers for torpedo boats and fired on their phantom forms. This astonishing explanation is regarded here as fitting well with the state of panic suggested as having prevailed among the officers of the Baltic fleet, and in that case it is suggested that the Russian government should find no difficulty in removing and punishing the officers responsible.

The newspapers today evince more heat and impatience than heretofore at Russia's delay, which is considered absolutely indefensible in the present circumstances.

Tension increases as time passes without a definite settlement of the situation created by the Russian blunder in the North sea. Ambassador Benckendorff's tentative communication to Foreign Minister Lansdowne and the fact that this was regarded as unsatisfactory only served to inflame the public mind; and while official circles are giving out intimations that it is their confident belief the whole matter will be satisfactorily arranged, it is now quite evident that only a short time will be allowed Russia in which to give final and complete assurances of her intention to comply with any and all demands Great Britain may make within reason.

The arrival of Admiral Rojestvensky at Vigo and the certainty that he is in direct communication with his government removes at once the possibility of any delay on account of the inability of Russia to get his side of the occurrences of the night of Oct. 21. With this official version before the Russian government, together with the official statement of the members of the fishing fleet, it is unlikely that the British public or the British government will allow another twenty-four hours to pass quietly without receiving a satisfactory reply to the note, which demanded a quick answer.

Meanwhile the admiralty is not idle. Reports from all naval stations show that a tremendous state of anxiety exists. This is especially true of Gibraltar, from which place it is announced that some of the best of Great Britain's war vessels are under orders to proceed in the direction of the Russian Baltic squadron, and that all the ships of the British channel fleet are ready to go to sea at a moment's notice. Hitherto there has been no indication that a time limit had been set by Great Britain for Russia's reply to her demands, but the fact that three battleships and three cruisers are under orders for the morning of Oct. 28 is construed in some quarters to mean that Great Britain will not wait longer than that date before unleashing her squadrons, while it is also evident that the Russian cruisers and smaller boats of the Baltic squadron may find difficulty in passing the gateway to the East unless the crisis is completely over by the time they reach the entrance to the Mediterranean.

A STRONG WAR TONE

Pervades the Editorial Expressions of London Newspapers Which Call For Instant Relief.

It Is Undoubted That War Between the Two Nations Is Seriously Threatening.

London, Oct. 27.—The tone of comparative moderation and calmness hitherto shown by the press of London is observed to be yielding to one of an outspoken bellicose nature. The Daily Mail editorially speaks of war threatening and gives in scare headlines, "Ultimatum to Russia Expresses," etc. Without going to these lengths, nearly all the papers are discussing the possibilities of war should the war party in St. Petersburg be able to influence the emperor and government into a determination to shield the officers of the Baltic squadron. The unofficial explanation of Admiral Rojestvensky telegraphed from Vigo is stigmatized by the Morning Post and other papers as apparently that of a lunatic, whose continuance in a position of responsibility is a menace to every vessel that navigates the sea. The Daily Telegraph, representing the government view, says:

"There is no doubt whatever of the government's seriousness. No responsible ministers would order a fleet athwart the path of vessels of a foreign power without recognizing the responsibility of such a grave step; yet this is what his majesty's government has done with its eyes wide open."

An equally bellicose tone characterizes the British correspondents' dispatches from St. Petersburg, which openly impute the Russian delay to the belief that Great Britain is determined not to risk war and express the conviction that the Russian government is determined not to punish the offending officers.

Madrid dispatches comment severely upon the attempt of the Russians at Vigo to defy the Spanish government by the pretense that their vessels have been damaged and by proceeding to coal from German vessels and also on Admiral Rojestvensky's alleged explanation that firing on an approaching vessel was necessary for the protection of his squadron.

Lord Rosebery, in sending a check for $500 for the sufferers, describes the North sea affair as an "unspeakable outrage."

The Morning Post's Copenhagen correspondent gives a report that the captain of a British steamer, after passing the Baltic squadron Friday evening in the North sea, saw two miles away a two-funneled steamer in distress, which apparently sank before he was able to reach her. It is suggested that the steamer had been attacked by the Baltic squadron.

Battle Expected Shortly.

Mukden, Oct. 27.—A Japanese attack is now expected shortly. The Russian batteries continue to harass the Japanese. Otherwise all is quiet.

Reducing the Force.

Washington, Oct. 27.—Advices have reached the insular bureau that by legislation contained in one of the appropriation bills recently passed at Manila the strength of the Philippine constabulary has been reduced at one stroke by 1,200 men. The reduction will take effect at the beginning of the next fiscal year, leaving the strength of the force at 6,000 men.

Poisoning Is Suspected.

Columbus, Ohio, Oct. 27.—Thomas Hale, colored, a life convict from Hamilton county, is dead at the penitentiary of opium poisoning, and the authorities suspect he was murdered by some fellow-prisoner. Hale was a disturber and was bitterly disliked by many prisoners whom he had caused to be reported for infractions of rules.

SKEPTICAL GRAND JURORS

Do Not Believe County Treasurer's Strange Tale of Robbery.

Pomeroy, Ohio, Oct. 27.—Late yesterday afternoon the special grand jury which has been investigating the robbery by alleged masked men of the county treasurer's office of $14,500 here on Sept. 9, brought in an indictment against Thomas J. Chase, the county treasurer, charging him with embezzlement of that amount.

Mr. Chase was arrested in his office and brought into court. The bond was fixed at $10,000. The prisoner was placed in custody of the sheriff.

The arrest of Chase caused no surprise in Meigs county, but there is much excitement over the indictments that are expected against other persons. The name of one of these persons is on the lips of all, and the party has been suspected as much as Chase himself for over a month. Chase claims that two unknown masked men entered his office and robbed the safe, locked him in the vault and made their escape in daylight without being seen by anyone about the courthouse or in the town. As soon as the indictment against Chase was reported the grand jury resumed its investigation on the theory that there was at least one, probably two confederates, one to turn the combination on the vault door on the outside, and possibly another keeping watch outside of the building. The report of the investigation of confederates is awaited with more interest than that of the principal.

Bryan Leaves Indiana.

Hammond, Ind., Oct. 27.—William J. Bryan last night ended his second tour of Indiana for the national Democratic committee by making two speeches at Hammond, after making nine speeches during the day. A large number of persons heard him at various places. At Logansport Mr. Bryan was met by Thomas Taggart, chairman of the national Democratic committee. Chairman Taggart, who had not seen Bryan since becoming chairman, accompanied him to Monticello, Rensselaer, Hammond and Chicago.

TO YOUNG MEN.
In the Epworth Herald last week under the general heading of "How Shall a Young Man Cast His First Vote," Watson S. Moore, of Duluth, Minn., contributes an article which will not only interest first voters but every thoughtful citizen. It reads as follows:
"Young men of America, give your first vote for President of the United States for the next four years to Theodore Roosevelt."

"He is a man, a manly man, every inch and every pound of him, and to use a phrase of the President's own coining, 'clean as a hound's tooth.'"
"He has been President of all the people of the United States."
"No clique, boss or party has owned or been able to control him."
"What is right?" has been the test applied to every question and situation before a decision has been given.
"One of the first administrative acts as President was to tell the politicians that only clean and honest, as well as able men could be considered for appointment to office; and they have not dared to place any other names before him."

"He is a man of his word. A promise is a sacred thing in his sight. To him is the credit largely due that our nation's word to Cuba has been kept."
"He is a man of action. The isthmus canal has been a dream of statesmen for two generations and more. Under Roosevelt we begin to dig the ditch, and on our own territory, honorably and constitutionally obtained. When his political future and fortunes have seemed to conflict with present duty, no matter how unpleasant, has always prevailed."

"He was told that to interfere in the terrible anthracite coal strike would be political suicide. But he saw that intense suffering for the people and anarchy for the state were in sight if some settlement was not speedily reached, and he put his political future and fortunes behind him and interfered, and a settlement was made, and peace has since reigned in the coal country."
"All men up" is his motto. Not so very unlike the Epworth League motto His mottoes are not simply on a button but you see them constantly in motion. Every move he makes lifts men up."

He compels the Sultan of Turkey to grant to our schools and missionaries privileges heretofore denied them.
"But, above all, the idea of enforcement of the law is bound up with the President's personality. He breathed life into dead statutes. Men are not afraid of the most strenuous law, if there is no man behind it. The enforcement of law is the paramount issue in this country at the present time. The tariff, currency, trusts and even the tremendous temperance question, are all secondary."

"Of what use are good laws on the statute books, and what is the use of fighting and laboring to put other good laws in the same place if your executive will not enforce them? The rich lawbreaker and the man with a pull has no terrors for the President. Their measure, as far as he is concerned, is the same as is meted out for the same offence to the poor man."

"Young men of America, stand by the men who are loyal to your interests and the interests of all your true fellow citizens. This is the way to do it: 'Roosevelt electors X'!"

Lawton Jackson Killed.
Word comes from Valleria just as we go to press that Jacob Conrad shot and killed Lawton Jackson this afternoon.

Jackson kept a saloon and Conrad formerly worked for him. They had trouble today and began firing at each other on the street.

Two shots fired hit Jackson and he dropped dead. One ball from Jackson's revolver passed through Conrad's hat. Conrad was arrested and taken to Brownstown.

Political Gossip.
Hon. Gus Condo, of Marion, addressed a fine crowd at Valleria last night. The hall was not half large enough to accommodate the crowd. Mr. Condo made a splendid speech and was given close attention. Jackson county was indeed fortunate to get such an excellent campaigner as Mr. Condo for four speeches. He speaks at Brownstown tonight and here tomorrow night.

John M. Lewis and J. A. Cox had another good meeting at Freetown last night. They had a big crowd and were given a splendid hearing. Arthur McCart, candidate for prosecutor, was present and spoke briefly. He is making friends rapidly in this county.

Hear the Hon. Gus Condo at the Republican club room at 7:30 tomorrow evening.

MARRIED.
FERRY-VOELZ.

James E. Ferry and Miss Lena Voelz, both of Columbus, were married Wednesday evening at the home of William Willman in this city. Rev. Ph. Schmidt pronounced the ceremony. Mr. Ferry is the secretary of the Caldwell and Drake Structural Iron Works, of Columbus, and his bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Voelz. They are both held in high esteem. Mr. Ferry returned to Columbus last night and Mrs. Ferry remained here the guest of Miss Emma Willman. In a few days they will take a trip to the World's fair. They had sought to keep their marriage a secret for the present but in that they were not successful.

TIME TO STAND PAT

Is the Conclusion of a Former Silver Leader.
REORGANIZERS ARE NOT SINCERE
They Hide Their Real Purposes Behind an Ambuscade of False Pretenses—Prominent Indiana Democratic Veteran Also Declares Against Reorganizer Ticket.

Colonel Oliver C. Sabin, formerly of Colorado, but now of Washington, who was one of W. J. Bryan's most enthusiastic supporters in the campaigns of 1896 and 1900, has renounced the reorganizer party and will vote for Roosevelt and Fairbanks. During the campaigns named Colonel Sabin was associated with Senator Stewart of Nevada in conducting the "Silver Knight," a free silver paper, and in organizing "The Silver Knights of America," a free silver organization. He also assisted in the writing of the book, "The Hand of Money," circulated so extensively throughout the country in the first campaign of Bryan. In a letter, recently published, Colonel Sabin says:

"How it is possible for a man who is honestly in favor of the reorganization of silver to support Judge Parker, who is the very pet, the idol, you might say, of those men who defeated Bryan, I cannot conceive. Look over the whole list, from ex-President Cleveland, ex-Senator Hill, Richard Olney, and, without naming them, the whole management of the Parker movement now, and we find that they were either the active or passive enemies of free silver and of Mr. Bryan, and, in fact, of everything that we as silver men held to be important in our campaign. They not only were against us in sentiment, but they organized a third party, went in and tried to destroy Mr. Bryan and the Democratic party, and they succeeded. Now this same old gang, bought up by the trusts, heeled by the trusts, supported by monopolistic money, the grinders of the face of the poor, is going out asking for the votes of silver men to support a man and a party that has abused us and our people more than they ever have the Republican party."

More Money in Circulation.
"The Republican party, with what faults it may have, cannot be accused of being insincere, and, furthermore, the Republican party has come to where we wanted them. What we wanted in regard to money was more of it, and the Republican party came to it in a different way. Of course none of us cared for the simple question of silver only as it affected the volume of currency. There was too small an amount of money in circulation to do the business of the country. Now we have plenty of money. * * *

"Look at the financial condition of our country now. Whoever saw such a country? Where in all history is there record of a country as prosperous as we are today? Look at our immense exportation of goods, billions of dollars being brought into our country from abroad more than we send out. The like was never seen before. Our farmers only a few years ago in the Western states were borrowing money at anywhere from 6 to 10 and in some states 12 per cent. Look at them now. You cannot loan them money, and most of them have money to loan, and they are glad to get 5 or 6 per cent for it. God is on our side, and the very earth responds to good times. Look at our corn crop, billions of bushels; wheat by the hundreds of millions, and at prices seldom before equalled."

Good Time to "Stand Pat."
"Taking it altogether, we find everybody and everything prosperous, and as it stands now I am of the opinion, very much, of these Iowa fellows who believe in the doctrine of 'standing pat.' I believe it is well to let good enough alone. I, or any other person except politicians, do not care who is in power, for there is no political favor we ask, only this, we want prosperity for our country—good times; we want our laboring men to be furnished with plenty of work at good times wages, who are thereby enabled to educate their children, dress themselves respectably, give themselves good homes, and it makes them valuable and useful citizens. * * *

"President Roosevelt has never left us in doubt where he was on any question, always straight, honest, true and square. He is an American from the crown of his head to the soles of his feet, and nobody can have any doubt as to his standing by the flag of our country and commanding honest respect. The Democrats would do well not to carry on their campaign expecting to obtain votes from the American people by abusing the personality of Mr. Roosevelt. If they do, he will be elected by the largest majority any President has ever been since the days of Horace Greeley. Everybody knows Mr. Roosevelt is straight, and whether you are his political friend or enemy, you know he is a gentleman, honest, upright and sincere."

"The attempt to show that he is wild and erratic has no force whatever, because he has already had charge of the government for nearly four years, and he has done nothing but what was right, surrounding himself with the very best class of advisers, and if he has succeeded for the first four years of his administration, couldn't he do it four more? Can't we trust him better than Mr. Parker, led by Mr. Hill? Men Should Be Honest."

"I think, furthermore, that in politics as well as in business affairs, a man should be honest and sincere. Now the gentlemen who are managing this Parker boom are neither honest nor sincere. Mr. Hill, I suppose to be the manager of the whole concern, as he nominated Mr. Parker in the convention; Mr. Parker is his creation. Mr. Hill at a Democratic convention

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.
Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.
It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, uric acid, catarrh of the bladder and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work and in private practice, and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper, who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root, and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles are sold by all good druggists. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

In the state of New York openly advocated and passed a resolution to the effect of government ownership of all the coal mines; at the same time he and his friends, under cover, were making fun of the idea, and thought it was a good scoop on the Republicans. They would no more think of carrying it into practice than they would of flying.

"Take it with the money question. They did not have honesty enough to come out and declare in favor of the gold standard, hoping to deceive somebody into the belief that they could support and were believers in silver, as we used to be. There is no sincerity in the reorganizer party, no honesty in it, and I tell you that a party, community or man cannot succeed where it practices deceit, dishonesty and trickery. It cannot be done. It is just as wrong morally to carry out dishonesty in politics as it is in business or morals, and I am opposed to it."

"So far as I am concerned, I am satisfied that the best man is in now, and propose to 'stand pat.'"
Among the many Democrats who have announced their intention of voting for Roosevelt is Nelson J. Bozarth of Valparaiso. Mr. Bozarth was a leading candidate for governor before the Indiana state convention and fought in the ranks during the civil war. He has repudiated Parker because of the stand taken by him toward old soldiers in his letter of acceptance. Mr. Bozarth is not the only old soldier who has bolted the reorganizer ticket.

An Ovation for Hay.
New York, Oct. 27.—The crowd at the Republican mass-meeting in Carnegie hall last night was so large that the doors were locked at 7:30 o'clock. At that time all the available space within the hall was filled and several thousand people were crowded about the entrances seeking admission. John Hay, secretary of state, who made the first speech, was given an ovation when he appeared.

Parker to Take Stump.
New York, Oct. 27.—Judge Alton B. Parker, the Democratic candidate for president, will make three speeches in three states, according to an announcement made by the Democratic national committee last night. The first will be at Madison Square Garden, N. Y., Monday night; the second at Newark, N. J., Tuesday night, and the third at Hartford or New Haven, Conn., Thursday night.

Agreement Delayed.
Chicago, Oct. 27.—The Illinois coal operators and the members of the hoisting engineers' union, who have been in conference for several days regarding the scale to be paid during the next year, adjourned without any agreement being reached.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contains Mercury.

as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should not be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is tenfold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.
No one who is acquainted with a good quality can be surprised at the great popularity of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It not only cures colds and grip effectually and permanently, but prevents these diseases from resulting in pneumonia. It is also a certain cure for croup. Whooping cough is not dangerous when this remedy is given. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. It is also pleasant to take. When all of these facts are taken into consideration it is not surprising that people in foreign lands, as well as at home, esteem this remedy very highly and very few are willing to take any other after having once used it. Our answer is—They are easier and more pleasant to take and their effect is so gentle and so agreeable that one hardly realizes that it is produced by a medicine. Then they not only move the bowels but improve the appetite and aid the digestion. For sale at 25 cents per bottle by C. W. Milbous.

INDIANA'S WORK AT SHILOH.

History of the Battle Published by National Park Commission.

"Indiana at Shiloh" is the title of a volume of 310 pages compiled by John W. Coons, of Indianapolis. It is the report of the Indiana Shiloh National Park Commission, by which it is published. The book is one that will not only be valued as a historical work of accuracy, but will be of special interest to the survivors of the Indiana regimental and company organizations infantry, artillery and cavalry that took part in that battle, which is also known by the name of Pittsburg Landing. The volume is rich in maps, in pictures of the monuments that now mark the field and in the chief officers who took part in the battle.

Mr. Coons was a member of the Eleventh Indiana Infantry, and was himself thoroughly familiar with the events that he has collated and arranged in this volume. The battle of Shiloh or Pittsburg Landing, fought on Sunday and Monday, April 6 and 7 was the first great battle in the war for the Union. The importance of this victory for the Union cause was at once recognized and appreciated in the North. The book contains short historical sketches of each Indiana organization represented by a monument in the National Military Park at the battle of Shiloh, embracing the services of each up to that event. This history will be of much interest, especially will the old soldiers read it with interest.

One Half of the People

In this world don't know how the other half live, and a great part of them don't see well enough to appreciate the beauties that others with good eyes enjoy. Principally because they think they see well, while in reality they have not more than half normal vision. People who are unfortunate enough to have painful vision giving forth supreme effort to see, are even worse off than those who see poorly, because that effort brings serious results.

There is no occasion in these days to suffer from defective eyesight, or the effort to see. We can put troubles of this kind behind you. This is our specialty and we know it as an open book, which is combined with a conscientious determination, to do the work just right, hence our guarantee, if you are not satisfied your money back. ### ALL IS HARMONY

Democratic Tales of Party Rivalries Effectually Explored.

Indianapolis, Oct. 27.—Efforts that have been made by Democrats and Democratic newspapers for some time to convince the voters of Indiana that the state's two senators are at swords' points received a setback yesterday when the announcement was made that Senator Beveridge would be one of Senator Fairbanks' party on the latter's speaking tour of the state next week. The matter has been quietly arranged and has been kept under cover for a month or more, so that its publication at the last moment might make more effective the positive and absolute denial of the statement that inharmonious relations exist between the senior and the junior senators from Indiana. Senator Beveridge will be among the speakers of national reputation who will accompany the Republican vice presidential candidate, and the fact that the arrangement was made by Senator Beveridge himself should be sufficient to set at rest the slanderous reports of the existence of a state of war between the two.

Formal announcement of the change of ownership of the Star league is made in today's Indianapolis Star, and articles of incorporation of the Star Publishing company were filed with the secretary of state and the recorder of Marion county yesterday. According to the articles the company is capitalized at $1,000,000, divided into 10,000 shares. The principal in the deal is John C. Shaffer, owner and publisher of the Chicago Post, and the editorial head of the papers is to be Ernest Bross, formerly of the Portland Oregonian. The papers will be continued as 1-cent publications, and Mr. Shaffer announced yesterday that no changes would be made in the personnel of the three staffs beyond the engagement of Mr. Bross. "The Star is out of debt," said Mr. Shaffer, "and the new deal starts today with a credit to the paper's account in bank of $100,000. The papers will be independent, but will support Roosevelt in the present campaign."

The authorities of Indianapolis are preparing to start a vigorous "anti-spitting" crusade, and the announcement is made that hereafter all violators of the existing ordinance against this form of nuisance will be severely dealt with. Indianapolis has for several years had an ordinance prescribing a fine for spitting on sidewalks, streets, floors of theaters, churches, etc., but no effort has ever been made to enforce it. Yesterday two young men were arrested for spitting in an aisle at a local theater, and in police court they were fined the maximum amount. The announcement was made that enough time had been allowed public expectorators to familiarize themselves with the ordinance, and that hereafter any man caught spitting in a public place, or any man against whom such a charge might be laid by a competent witness would be arrested and fined the maximum allowed by the ordinance, $5 for each offense.

The first meeting of the Liberty Bell arrangements committee was held yesterday, and tentative arrangements were made for the reception of the bell in this city on Nov. 17. It was decided to secure the dismissal of all school children of the city on that date, and to hold a monster demonstration in Tomlinson hall. Special CRIMES FOR THE CHILDREN will be arranged, and a number of patriotic addresses will be made. James Whitcomb Riley will recite his famous poem "Old Glory." The bell, which is accompanied on its trip to the St. Louis exposition by a committee of twenty-seven members of the Philadelphia city council, will remain here under guard on a sidetrack until noon of Nov. 18, so as to give all who wish to see it an opportunity to do so. Special trains will be run into Indianapolis from many sections of the state on the occasion of the bell's visit to this city.

Considerable activity exists among Indianapolis Irishmen since the publication of the news of the Russian attack upon the British fishing fleet last Saturday morning. Irish Nationalists throughout the country it is said, believe England is on the verge of war with Russia, and are said to be preparing, in the event of such a war, to go at once to Ireland and endeavor to arouse the sons of the Emerald Isle to the point of attacking England and fighting for freedom while the hands of the British are occupied with their gigantic opponent. It is reported that more than a hundred Irishmen in this city are interested in the move, and the reports further say that these men are ready at a day's notice to start for Ireland, joining on their way hundreds of others from all parts of the United States.

Fatal Fall From Horse.
Bedford, Ind., Oct. 27.—W. C. Fines, sixty-five years old, father of Andrew Fines, publisher of the Oolitic News, in the stone district, was thrown from his horse and fatally hurt.

Couldn't Stand Political Worry.
Remo, Oct. 27.—Marquis Afan De Rivers, who for fourteen years represented Naples in the chamber of deputies, has fallen a victim to political incidents. He became much worried recently upon learning that Count Panzuti would be a candidate against him, dividing the monarchial party and rendering his re-election uncertain. Tuesday night he was taken ill and died before morning.

IT WAS IRREGULAR

Naturalized Citizens of Cass County Find Themselves In a Quandary.

NEW ACT OVERLOOKED

Regulation Designed to Exclude Anarchists Has Not Been Complied With.

And Now Four Hundred Foreigners Will Have to Appear Again.

Logansport, Ind., Oct. 27.—The court officials claim that the naturalization papers issued to nearly 400 foreign-born residents in this county are defective because they took no cognizance of the act of congress, March 3, 1903, designed to regulate immigration and guard against the admission of avowed anarchists. Judge Lairy of the circuit court holds that it will be necessary for all who have taken out naturalization papers since that date to subscribe to the new regulation.

SENIOR MCCOY MOVES

Fear of Dynamiters Drives Him to Center of City.

Rensselaer, Ind., Oct. 27.—No clue which would lead to the identity of the person or persons who dynamited the McCoy home has yet been discovered, although various wild rumors have been afloat to the effect that the local authorities know the guilty parties. Unless a large reward is offered by the McCoy for the apprehension of the conspirators, it is improbable that any steps will be taken which will lead to an arrest, as nobody here is actively engaged in pushing the case. A. McCoy and wife, the aged parents of T. McCoy, have moved from their beautiful home to a suite of rooms in the business portion of the city, for fear that the dynamiters might repeat their act. Where a year ago these two homes were the center around which Rensselaer society revolved, they now present a most desolate appearance; one a perfect wreck, the other deserted.

Literary Clubs Meet.

Fort Wayne, Ind., Oct. 27.—Delegates to the convention of the Indiana Union of Literary clubs are here in large numbers. The union is by far the larger of the two state organizations, numbering more than 3,000 persons. It includes men's and mixed clubs as well as those composed entirely of women. Sixty-six cities and towns from the lake to the river are represented in the membership of its 131 clubs.

Bold Midnight Robbery.
Noblesville, Ind., Oct. 27.—A stranger without a mask walked into the home of Aaron Mitchell, and, covering him with a revolver, demanded his money. After Mitchell had thrown his pocketbook, watch and overcoat in the middle of the floor, at the request of the robber, the latter compelled Mitchell to return to bed, then turned the light down, picked up the goods and walked away.

Village Narrowly Escaped Destruction.
South Bend, Ind., Oct. 27.—Fire in the oil room in W. G. Deal's establishment at Wyatt caused a loss of $6,500 on stock and building. The fire communicated to adjoining buildings belonging to H. F. Keiser, burning them. The contents were removed. The absence of wind saved the town from widespread destruction, as there is no fire protection.

Thief Quickly Punished.
Anderson, Ind., Oct. 27.—A young man registering as Thomas Kane, of Marion, stole a woman's coat at the theater, confessed and was transferred to the state prison, all in less than twenty-four hours. He appeared indifferent about the sentence, and said he came to this city to work the candidates for money.

Caught at the Crossing.
Bedford, Ind., Oct. 27.—Hugh Jackson, well-known farmer, was killed by a Southern Indiana train at the West Twenty-sixth street crossing. Jackson was coming to Bedford in his high wagon and was hit by a train which he bluff.

Thought It Was Whisky.
Indianapolis, Oct. 27.—Because he thought that carbolic acid was whisky, James A. Day, aged sixty-four, is now dead. Day ran across a whisky bottle containing some reddish fluid on a shelf at his home. He thought it was whisky and took a large swallow.

Smallpox Scare Subsiding.
Terre Haute, Ind., Oct. 27.—For the week there have been only two new cases of smallpox in the city, and these were in homes where the disease already existed. The scare has passed and the effort now is to disabuse the minds of outsiders.

Highwaymen Are Active.
Terre Haute, Ind., Oct. 27.—Homer Moore, a butcher near Seelyville, was robbed of $200 by three highwaymen on the national road. Two men held him and the third went through his pockets.
